Join WUMFA today and take advantage of all the great benefits it has to offer! Our florist association offers education, networking, and money saving programs to give you that competitive advantage to help you succeed! There are so many reasons to be a member to include the following:

- Annual Convention – “Into the Jungle” the annual convention is filled with educational stage shows, hands-on design workshops, and informative business sessions the weekend of March 20-22, 2026, at Oneida Hotel & Conference Center, Green Bay, WI (Members receive discounted registration fees.)
- Educational Opportunities - visit www.wumfa.org and click on the events tab for a complete list of classes and workshops around the state. (Members receive discounted registration fees.)
- The Professional Florist magazine - Diamond Award winning trade publication for WUMFA members. Read about local member florists in your own region, upcoming events, and design tips you can use! (Available to members only.)
- Certified Florist Program (CF) - Nationally recognized certification program to give you a competitive edge. (Members receive discounted registration fees.)
- Scholarships – available to new and experienced florists. Download an application at www.wumfa.org
- Unmatched Credit Card processing rates - Give us a chance to beat your current processing rates with this WUMFA member service. Call Office for a quote today.
- Professionally Staffed Office - Providing professional information both for consumers and florists in the industry.
- “Find - A - Florist” – powered by Google Maps with over 1000 consumer hits per month directing orders to member’s businesses 24 hours a day, 7 days a week!
- Consumer Awareness - WUMFA takes an active role in promoting the importance of buying local from member florists through: the WUMFA website, social media on Facebook, press releases sent to statewide news media, promotional displays at the WI State Fair in West Allis, trade shows and other various events around the state.

Being a member of WUMFA gives you the chance to network with fellow professional florists along with providing a unified voice in governmental affairs. The educational opportunities are also a great value for the price with nationally recognized floral industry instructors. It pays in so many ways to be a member!

Sincerely,

Rhonda Deaver
WUMFA President
